Chapter 2

Walkthrough

ok now the reason why I am typing this oh and if you notice ANY mistakes or ANY places dont worry i havent played it in a while (well online) so update me on things that are going on

ok now i have numbered the taskes for your convienience

1. Gnome's House
2. Master Li
3. Master Wong
4. Hiking person
5. Graal 1
6. Graal 2
7. Graal 3
8. Graal 4
9. Amulet
10. pking

1

OK the way to get the gnome's house back is to fight off the baddies that have took it over the poor little gnomes had to live in the pub because of the baddies (not referring to the Clan the Baddies sorry if your a baddy and saying right now "HORSEMEN ARE GOING DOWN") the way i do it is
I fight off the the guy in the bed room then i kill the guy by the Stove and i deal the with the others OR you can CHEAT and go push F4 and click on your flags and put this "GNOMESATHOME" well i think thats the flag oh well but im strongly against cheating so i just put that cause thats what i do normally Damn pks its impossible to get buy with them having 6000 hearts

2

for MasterLi you have to go by the Taylor outside his house he sells his clothing for like 10 ruppees or you can CHEAT again and put in the following Flag "ninjaclothesforli" and of course just walk up to the knights and they will say pass dear ninja or something like that but of course talk to Li and he will give you a sword and if you come back later you will get a shield but we will get into that later next chapter well if you go up the Weird looking stairs (hey he made these back when it was just a Stupid Zelda Editor) but im not dissing Stefan on the Zelda Editor cause without that i wouldnt of been able to create my levels

3

Master Wong is a neat level cause all you have to do is bring him a bush
(wow easy as chicken pot pie on a tuesday morning Eh!)heheheheh but of course for the CHEATERS you can put in this flag "HelpedWong" then goto MasterLi and get that shield i was talking about up there and i didnt mention this but there is the chaos levels and you have to help wong to get them to show up

4

Oh man i love this level SO much it is easy to cheat on well anyways i will give you the walkthrough FIRST ok first you goto that cave right beside the church (not the church where the pachuka temple is but the other one inside of the city of Graal) ok you now goto the end by going to the side until you get to the far left wall then you head north well there is a red brick (i think its red or maybe blue oh well) you lay a bomb on that brick and run away well the bomb hits the bushes and then you push (or pull) the brick and go through the cave up there and then you walk on the shallow water fallow it until you make it to the south cave go through that cave (you will end up in a fenced area at the first part of the cave) then you fallow it kill the baddies and go through the other cave (you will end up in the fenced area of the second part of the cave) then you fallow it until you enter the small cave door then you beat away the baddies and make it to the shoes ok then you run like hell to the exit ok then you talk to that guy and he will give you passage over the mountains (of course there are more levels over there including a FREAKING tunnel like transporter but its not that important to the game) now for the flag ok CHEATERS listen up the flag is "playerhasshoes" and you have the shoes to get the FIRST graal is SO easy its the second third and fourth are the harder ones well all you have to do is have 30 rupees on ya and walk to the house North of the Swamp City well lay the red rupee on the door entrence well a guy will appear and he will let you in and you can get the first graal ok CHEATERS hehehehe the flag for the First graal is "FoundGraal1" (i think if thats not it just experiment around and it means the finding the First graal or something)

6

the Second Graal (thinks WOW man its like 12 already man i need a pepsi the official drink for the Horsemen hehehe the second official drink is Jack Daniels hehehehe) ahh the space ship ok goto the house where on the first directx version of graal you started on you know the house by the gate and goto the left climb the mountain and you will see a space ship go in there and head to the left and push you way through the red blocks (this time i know they are red im playing it right now HEHEHEHE) and make your way to the Weird lightning bolt thing well push one of the red blocks on that lightning thingy and talk to the aliens then get out of that room then go to the south room and goto the middle switch and touch it you should be teleported outside and there is the Second Graal ok CHEATERS the flag is (DUHHHH!! pretty much the same as the top) "foundgraal2" heheheh

7

(thinks so hard his brain fries) AHH no i forgot where the third is oh well the cheaters will love this one im going straight to the flag "foundGraal3" oh man PCB {pepsi cola Break hehehe modified verison of BRB (bathroom break or Be right back oh well)}

8

ahh this time i REMEMBER heheheh ok we all know how to get to the Mod (masters of deception "i think") HQ is well go to the north just below the Red Dragons HQ and you will see a cave go there talk to the LITTLE monster and run the left (i really mean RUN LIKE BARBARA STRIESAND IS TRYING TO FUCK YOU "pardon my using of the word FUCK if you are offend by this LISTEN TO MARILYN MANSON") fight off the knights but make sure you dont get hurt and make it to the back there is a big monster and he will keep on sending you monsters to fight untill you kill the monsters 3 times and then a portal will appear and you can go and get the graal hehehe CHEATERS if you didnt catch onto the pattern YOU ARE A DUMBASS I MEAN DUHH HELLO MISTER ANYTHING UP TOP "foundgraal4" heheheh man i can see the hate mail now

i didnt want to mention this but i have to cause I DONT KNOW WHERE THE BRO IS but i do know the FLAG hehehe it is "Playerhasamulet"OR if you wanna know what the bro says put in "brohasShield" well take the amulet to the to the southleft door and follow around i think its the far left door and then go north follow the cave until you reach a door blocking a ladder well if you have the amulet it will not be there so dont go WHAT THE FUCK ok follow that and you will get to a SMALL city and there is a house with a blue knight in there he will tell you about how he is blind well go out and goto the end of the house and cut all the bushes down and you will see a sign lift it up or blow it up your choice well there is a fist full of knights kill them and a black knight will appear he will give you his medicine for the amulet take it to that same blue knight and you will get a key then go back to the room that has a north and a south door goto the south and to the right across the bridge then follow the fence until you get to a bridge going south walk across it and follow the trail to another bridge you remember the key thats where it goes there now there is a whole SHIT load of levels back there but i dont have the finger power to type all that ok

ok know what i think about pking (player killing) ok it was cool at first but now its just STUPID man there are what i like to call good cheaters (people like me) and bad cheaters (the kind that get on your nerves) the good cheaters dont use there CHEATING ability for bad they use it to brag and show off to thier friends the bad kind are the one with 999,999,999,999,999 hearts and a axe and a mirror shield when you have maybe the li sword and the extra heart now if we started something (PAIPK)

Players against Illegial Player Killing we could team up on the FREAKS but hey i am only a psychopathic Psychotic person who HATES people with everything and more and are DEAMED Player killer oh well oh and like i said email me if there is ANYTHING wrong with this Walkthrough of course at {LordArchangel@hotmail.com or Alicia@cei.net} thanks and have many fun games of Graal with my Walkthrough

Chapter 3

What may accur in the future releases of Graal

ok now if you are reading this you need to clean up the coffee that is spilled on your keyboard cause you are probally on what your Eighth Glass well chapter three is about what might accur in the future of graal well i hope that there might be a MENU and More advanced weapons like maybe gills and Flippers for swiming and from what i see at the official graal site http://www.cyberjoueur.com/English/graal.html
there is gonna be more intellegent NpC's (nonplayable characters) and a Spin attack and maybe more bosses and i hope that stefan fixes the golden sword cause it is as powerful as the normal sword oh and also the superbombs they are as powerful as the normals
